2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

Sermon Discussion Questions

What Is Said Last Matters Most
Acts 20:17-38

- 1.If it was the last time you were meeting with Christians that you had mentored and shared life with, what would you say to them?
- 2.In Acts 20:36-38, the elders express deep grief at Paul’s departure. Reflecting on this and Paul’s praise for the Ephesians’ love for all the saints in Ephesians 1:15, what does this tell us about the nature of their relationship?
- 3.Compare Acts 20:24 and Philippians 3:8. Paul seems to be saying he would rather lose his life than waste his life. Discuss the implications.
- 4.Paul is “compelled”/“constrained” to go to Jerusalem (v22)? What does it mean to live a life that is compelled by the Spirit without knowing what will happen?
- 5.Paul presses ahead, even though he doesn’t know what is going to happen and imprisonment is possible (v23). How does this fit with Paul’s views on suffering? (Acts 14:22; 2 Tim 3:12).
- 6.As Paul recounts his ministry in Ephesus (Acts 20:19-21), he emphasizes humility, tears, trials, and his message of repentance and faith in Jesus. How does this depiction of faithful Christian ministry correspond with the virtues Paul encourages in Ephesians 4:2-3?
- 7.In Acts 20:20 and 20:27, Paul declares that he did not hesitate to proclaim “the whole will of God.” What does it mean to “not hesitate.” How might you ignore or minimize what God has said?
- 8.What are the elders supposed to do (verse 28-31)? Compare to 1 Peter 5:1-5. Who are the specific people elders are responsible for?
- 9.Paul insists he did not covet anyone’s silver, gold, or clothing but worked to support himself and his companions (Acts 20:33-35). Why did he support himself, and in doing so what accusation was he trying to avoid?
- 10.Reflecting on Paul’s statement in Acts 20:35, “It is more blessed to give than to receive,” how does this counter-cultural message challenge our modern societal values?

Elder Candidates

John Graves

John is a Montana native and has been an active member of Redeemer since 1983. He was a middle school teacher for 30 years and now directs a masters degree program for science teachers at MSU. He has served in many capacities at Redeemer, including Men's Ministry, worship team, elder, and staff leader. He has a passion for disciple-making and can often be seen meeting with other guys for breakfast, lunch or outdoor activities as they grow to look more like Jesus. John and Susanna have been married for 20 years and have 5 adult children and 8 grandkids between them. He loves skiing, hiking, reading, playing music, and most everything that takes advantage of living in Bozeman.

Dan Collins

Dan will be Redeemer's Discipleship Pastor. His call to ministry came about as the Lord was calling him back to himself. When he came back to Christ, he also came back to the church and back to reading the word of God. There it became abundantly clear to him that his life, whatever he was going to do, had to revolve around understanding and proclaiming the word of God. This led him to enrolling in Bible college, where God confirmed his call into ministry. Dan has served in churches both around the country and around the world. Dan and his wife, Annie, have five beautiful children. Dan is excited to be moving to an area that is growing and changing, and to live in a place where he can help meet growing spiritual needs. He enjoys the outdoors whether that is hiking, camping, or his all-time favorite...mountain biking.

Tim Hart

Tim moved to Bozeman with his family in 2006 from the Midwest. Tim has been a licensed realtor since 2006 and opened his own brokerage in 2015. He has served in many capacities at Redeemer including Men's ministry, facilitating small groups and Sunday school classes. Tim has a heart for men in making sure they are connected to the church and to each other. Tim has served as a board member for several ministries, including Alive Again Life Recovery and Sacred Portion Children's ministry. Tim has been married to Lori for 34 years and has 3 adult children (and is impatiently waiting on grandchildren). Beyond Jesus and his family, he has a passion for fly fishing, hiking, skiing, and just being outside.

Jon Kimmel

Jon is Redeemer's Youth and Family Discipleship Pastor. He grew up in central Pennsylvania as the oldest of five kids. He moved to the Midwest for seminary, and God has continued to move him west ever since. Jon and his wife Megan met and got married in 2011. They have three awesome and energetic children. Their family loves to hike, play outside, and do just about anything active together. Jon has a passion to see students and families know Jesus and make Him famous in every area of their lives.
