New Here?

We're glad you're here! Redeemer is a community of all ages and stages. Regardless of where you are in life, you're welcome here. In all of the various parts of our service, don't feel any pressure to participate today. If you have questions about anything or would like a free Bible, please head over to the Welcome Center or find someone with a nametag, and they'll steer you in the right direction.

8:45AM | 10:30AM
7/6/2025

To all who are weary and need rest, to all who mourn and long for comfort, to all who feel worthless and wonder if God cares, to all who fail and desire strength, to all who sin and need a Savior.

Welcome!

to Redeemer Church

This church opens wide her doors with a welcome from Jesus Christ, the Defender of the guilty, the Justifier of the inexcusable, the Friend of sinners.

Redeemer Exists to Glorify God

Scripture Reading

James 5:13-18

Sermon

Does Sin Make You Sick? Does Oil Fix It?

Response

He Will Be

Benediction

Sermon Discussion

- Do you tend to lean into prayer more naturally in seasons of difficulty or seasons of joy? Why do you think that is? What would it look like to cultivate a reflex of turning to God in both suffering and celebration?
- Have you ever invited elders to pray over you in difficult times? If not, what's held you back? Why does James say to call the elders and not just other Christians?
- James directly connects confession of sin to spiritual and even physical healing. How might the practice of confessing sins to one another (v16) deepen relationships and spiritual growth in your group or church? What specific barriers (fear, shame, pride) keep you from confessing your sins to others? How could we overcome these in our community?
- As a group, how can we encourage one another toward consistent, fervent, and faith-filled prayer?
